

HYLL

CHRISTMAS at Hyll

Three days of calm celebration, good company, and quiet indulgence in the heart of the Cotswolds. It's Christmas HYLL style – thoughtful, unhurried, and gently celebratory. You bring the scarves and the appetite. We'll take care of the rest.

CHRISTMAS EVE

The season unfolds slowly here. Candles lit, glasses raised, time stretched just enough to savour.

On Christmas Eve, we begin with carols at five – voices carried through lantern light - followed by dinner at your own pace, with a live jazz band setting the rhythm between 7pm and 11pm.

Arrival is eased with a complimentary drink and a small gift from us, tucked into your room.

CHRISTMAS DAY

Christmas Day starts with champagne – a breakfast that lingers, with board games and little treats scattered for grazing throughout the day.

A traditional Christmas lunch is served between 12:30pm and 3pm, pre-booked to suit your rhythm.

Evening draws in with a grazing table as abundant as the day itself. Ideal for nibbling, lingering – or simply reclining and declaring you'll ‘never eat again’ (until you do).

BOXING DAY

Boxing Day invites a late breakfast until 10:30am, before stepping outside for a falconry display.

A few days shaped not by hurry, but by glow – warm light, slow meals, and the small rituals that make Christmas feel like Christmas.
